

I want to speak out strongly against rerstricting sattellite radio from broadcasting traffic and weather. Or restricting them in any other way. For those of us who use only satallite radio, what are we to do if such a restriction is made? This is against everything this country stands for and what has sustained those who are complaining for many decades.